MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: "International Child Abduction Act" - S. 1347 & H.R. 2673

1. On July 27, 1987, I discussed the captioned legislation with the following individuals: [redacted]

25X1
25X1

The subject of discussions was whether or not the Agency should seek legislative history language attempting to protect the Agency's equities with respect to children of defectors. [redacted]

25X1

2. After some discussion, it was agreed that the Agency would not proceed any further at this time. The reasons for this conclusion are essentially those set forth in my memorandum of 17 June 1987 on the subject. [redacted]

25X1

3. This office, however, will continue to monitor the legislation to insure that the exemption in Section 107 (a) and (b) regarding the non-provision of information in national security cases remained intact. [redacted]
